

Policy No. 6.006
Northwest Louisiana Technical College

Americans with Disabilities Act: Employees and Students

Original Adoption: February 10, 2008
Effective Date: February 10, 2008
Last Revision: June 12, 2014

Policy of Northwest Louisiana Technical College (NWLTC) provides equal opportunity for all qualified persons without regard to disability in the recruitment of, admission or accessibility to, participation and treatment in, or employment in the programs and activities operated and sponsored by the NWLTC. Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and other related federal and state law the NWLTC prohibits discrimination against persons with a disability and is committed to providing an atmosphere conducive for persons with disabilities.

Scope and Applicability

Policy of Northwest Louisiana Technical College (NWLTC) and its Regions provides equal opportunity employment to qualified persons without regard to disability. This entails recruitment, advancement, compensation, job training, and other terms, conditions and privileges of employment. The NWLTC prohibits discrimination against persons with a disability. NWLTC is committed to providing an atmosphere conducive for persons with disabilities.

The NWLTC strictly opposes discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities in hiring, advancement, compensation, training, discipline and other terms and conditions of employment.

Northwest Louisiana Technical College will provide reasonable accommodations to disabled individuals upon request, unless the accommodation would impose an “undue hardship”. Reasonable accommodations may include, but are not limited to: making existing facilities readily accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities, job restructuring, modifying work schedules, reassignment of vacant position, and acquiring or modifying equipment or devices, adjusting examinations, training materials or providing readers/interpreters. An employer is not required to lower production standards, quality standards or provide personal items to make an accommodation. If a reasonable accommodation is requested, the employee receiving the request should contact the Regional Human Resource Manager.

Definitions

Individual with a disability – A person, who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such impairment or is repaired as having such impairment.

Qualified individual with a disability -an individual who with, or without, reasonable accommodations can perform the essential functions of the job.

Undue Hardship – an action requiring significant difficulty or expense, in consideration, of the institution’s size, financial resources and the structure of the operation.

Provisions to Demonstrate Support of the ADA Policy

- Developing and administering compliance procedures related to employment
- Implementation of reasonable accommodation procedures
- Serving as a resource for possible ADA matters
- Coordinating disability support services
- Providing accommodations for current persons with disabilities and information for potential affiliates of the institution
- It is the responsibility of all unclassified employees, classified employees, faculty, students, vendors and clients to abide by the Americans with Disabilities Act relating to employment practices.
- Persons of Appointed Authority should administer a workplace that acknowledges the provisions of the ADA and enforces its guidelines. An Appointed Authority who knowingly tolerates or allows discrimination against persons with disabilities, and who fails to report or respond appropriately will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Complaints of Disability Discrimination

Complaints of disability discrimination should be reported to the Chief Human Resources Officer or Human Resource Director at the Louisiana Community and Technical College System.

The NWLTC will not tolerate any type of retaliation against an individual requesting an accommodation. Individuals who violate this policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Persons who violate this policy may also be subject to civil damages or criminal penalties.
