

Policy No. 6.008
Northwest Louisiana Technical College

Critical Supply Adjustment

Original Adoption: February 10, 2008
Effective Date: February 10, 2008
Last Revision: June 12, 2014

Northwest Louisiana Technical College (NWLTC) Faculty employed to instruct in an area of certification deemed “critical supply”, and approved by the Appointing Authority and the NWLTC Director, may receive an adjustment up to 10% above their entry level salary step.

Critical supply areas of certification may be declared for the entire state, Regions(s), or one campus. Current faculty teaching in designated “critical supply” areas of certification that are on a step lower than newly hired faculty shall be moved to the appropriate step at the beginning of the next fiscal year.
